HONGKONG, OCTOBER 21st. 1910.

A rew days ago we reproduced the text of a "United Christian Appeal for the ending of the Indo-Chinese Opium Traffic, signed by the leading representatives of China. If they were only able to appreciate twenty denominations of the Christian Church in the United Kingdom. While not wishing to dictate, the signatories to the Appeal said they would rejoice. if the Bishops and the Protestant bodies of the United Kingdom felt able to adopt a series of suggestions set forth in the Appeal, the principal being that each parish or congregation, either directly, or by means of societies or meetings, be invited to adopt a memorial to the Home Government, in harmony with the recent recommendations of the Central Board of Missions of the Church of England, and with the findings of Commission VII. of yesterday. the World Missionary Conference on the subject, asking: (a) that China be formally Tokmakoff, one of the leading jockeys in the released from Treaty obligations to admit port, fell and broke his collar-bone. opium; (b) that the connection of the Indian Government with the opium export trade be by throwing himself into the harbour off the brought to an end. It was further suggested whari at Tsim Tsat Tsoi but was rescued by 24th, that being the 50th anniversary of the ratification at Peking of the Treaty of Tientsin under which the import of Indian opium became for the first time legalized. If this date is found inexpedient, it is suggested that such action be at any rate taken before the close of the year Now, one of the most lamentable features of the age is the readiness with which the public at large is prepared to accept its opinions ready made, and to play the game of "follow my leader." Despite the Scriptural warning against the blind following the blind lest they both fall into the ditch, we have no doubt whatever that this behest of the Bishops and other leaders of the Christian Church will be generally followed by the congregations, just as good sheep will follow kind shopherds. But whatever might be done by the religious organisations, it is some satisfaction to note that there is prospect of counter-action in political circles. We observe a telegram in the Indian papers reporting that The Times in a leader has refused to endorse the appeal, and remark three years ago that " righteousness in this matter is ours and the money concerned is other people's." The Times very properly holds that these appeals should not receive general support unti some willingness is shown to assist India, the Straits and Hongkong during the period of grave financial stress which the extinction of the opium traffic will produce. This expression of opinion is quite in accord with views recently expressed by the Secretary. of State for the Colonies. The Government is now well informed of the bearings of their anti-opium policy on the finances of India, the Straits Settlements and Hongkong. So far as this Colony concerned, the Imperial Government has recognised its responsibility to a certain extent by making a contribution £9,000, but as the loss incurred by the Colony in suppressing the opium divans at the dictation of the Imperial Government amounts to more than double that sum, the Unofficial Members of Council have very properly protested against the smaliness of the grant. The least we can hope for is that the Government recognises that it is a continuing responsibility, though on that point H.E. the Officer Administering the Government was unable to give the tarpayers of the Colony any assurance month ago when he presented to the Legisla-

ing the export from India, the point of total It would be a monstrous injustice to India and the Crown Colonies if the Government were to be influenced by the appeal which the Churches are about to make it, under prolific source of degradation and misery unparalleled in any country in the world. Similar notions are preached about the Crown Colonies which we have seen described in the Anti-Opium Society's literature as "the blackest spots," though On October 15th, at Shanghai, the wife of we do not hesitate to declare the proverbial "oldest resident" has seen little or nothing at all of "the terrible degra-On October 9th, MARIANNE (MINNIE), the dation and misery" caused by the opium habit. If it exists in Hongkong, it is not forced on the attention of the public in the way that the degradation and misery entailed by drunkenness is forced upon public attention every day in the cities and towns of the United Kingdom. Far better would it be for the churches to realise that charity should begin at home. We should like to see the Churches taking as much interest in the gigantic drink evil in the United Kingdom as they are in the very much lesser opium evil in the relative importance of the two they would have no difficulty in deciding which of the two demands their first attention. The extreme solicitude for the salvation of the opium-smokers of China must strike all Chinaman who know England and Scotland, Ireland and Wales as most farcically unctuous, as long as the Bishops and leaders of the Nonconformist Churches refrain from advocating similarly drastic measures to suppress the corresponding evil in their own country with which they

SUICIDE AT FOOCHOW.

A distressing suicide has occurred at Foochow, the victim of melancholia being Mr. Ernest L. Page, who was a teacher in the Anglo-Chinese college. He had been living with the Reu and Mrs. Gowdy. The suicide was not a sudden impulse. Mr. Page prepared his will, and left it on the dressing table in his room, together with his bank book, watch and a scaled letter unaddressed. Then he appears to have walked beyond "Little Woods," a distance of three miles from the settlement, and shot himself. The letter written by Mr. Pagewas one of twelve pages and showed an unsound mind. He belonged to Pennsylvania, and he had come out to Foochow on a five years' contract expecting to save money and take a medical course when his contract expired .

His Lordship-Won't that be shown by the

Mr. Kong Sing-Not altogether. My client has been debited with certain items which we say the plaintiffs had no right to debit with. We supplied the plaintiffs with coolies, and they paid us $30 for each one.

Mr. Goldring-Indentured labour for Java, I think. Yellow slave traffic. His Lordship - What is the question I have get to try? Mr. Goldring - One of the principal items in dispute is an item in Mr. Kong Slog's account, 74 coolies at $30 each. We say we have received in all through the defendant about fifteen coolies. seven of whom, I think, were unfit, and were not passed by the Registrar-General. Also that the draw. The brothers Hancock were highest brokerage, or whatever it was, is divisable amongst three persons, and is not due to the defendant alone.

Mr. Kong Sing said he was agreed on all the Igures supplied by his friend with the exception of on item of $243.50. If the accounts were compared it would be found that they tallied with the exception of that amount, and with the exception of the 74 coolies.

His Lordship-Does it boil down to these two

Mr. Kong Sing-Yes. His Lordship (to Mr. Goldring)-Do you

SPORTING NOTES.

After some little delay the Cricket League. fixtures have been arranged, and the season's programme is about to be commenced, a week later than last year. In 1909 the first meeting was assigned to the R.G.A. and Kowloon, but this year the Police and Remnants have the honour of inaugurating the competition.

The Remnants, "all that is left of them," intend to make a bold bid for the top position. Doubtcounterclaimed to recover the sum of $514.88, less they will give a good account of themselves. but it is too early in the season for an outsider Mr. P. W. Goldring (of Messrs, Goldring, to share their optimism. The Police will miss Edwards, who had several centuries to his credit and defendant was represented by Mr. Otto last season, and the absence of King will also be felt. Of course they have found a good man in True, formerly of the R.E.

I understand that Staff-Sergeant Power, of the R.E., who, by the way, leaves for Home on the 25th, wins the bat presented by the "Hongkong Sporting Annual" for the highest batting average during the season 1909-10. His three conturies, two if not three of them not out, considerably swelled the total number of runs to more money than he was entitled to. My client, his credit, so that his average of 49 is not

The transport Robilla not only brought reliefs to the Garrison but brought welcome additions to the military football and cricket question your Lordship has to decide is as to clubs, and some of the men had barely been in the Colony twenty-four hours when they were pressed into service on the cricket field and with the football elevens.

The formation of various leagues within recent years has given a wonderful filip to local sport. The Cricket League has done much for cricket, and the military, who have a competition on the knock-out system for a shield, have inangurated a league for small units, confined to some five entrants. Captain Clapham, who does not spare himself in the interests of military cricket, is the organiser of this latest product.

Fome good cricket was witnessed on Saturday, when as many as five matches were played. On the Club Ground the meeting between the first eleven and the next sixteen ended in a scorers for the first eleven, R. Hancock securing 64 and H. Hancock 45. The highest score on the other side was made by Sharpin, who had 37 not out. Craigengower lost to the Army Ordnance Corps, Watson's and Kowloon made a draw, Civil Service had an easy win from the Naval Yard, and Kent beat the R. E.

The superior training of the military combinations teld, and the civilian teams who have done little in that direction found themselves outclassed. The Buffs had little difficulty in securing the two points from the Club, but the R. G. A. had a tougher proposition in the Naval Yard, who are not to be despised, even not in training, did pretty well against B. E.

Only two League matches are set down for Saturday. The Club meet Kowloon on the latter's ground and the Buffs are at home to the Naval Yard. The struggle between the first pair should be fairly even, and I expect Yesterday the party of delegates from the the Yarders will put up a good struggle against

The new Volunteer Reserve will commence operations on Saturday, when a two days' handi. cap competition at 200, 300, and 500 yards will be opened at the Peak Range. His Excellency Sir Henry May has offered three cups for competition, the first competition to take place on November 26th and 27th.

The boxing tournament which is being arranged by Mr. R. H. Whittaker for the From Seattle-Mr. J. Furth and Mr. and 5th ultimo should be productive of some interesting sport, and the programme arranged should attract a large number to the City Hall.

> The main event, as previously stated, is a twenty-five round bout between Bill Lewis and Artificer Hudson for a purse of $1,000. Hudson has not the science of the Australian, but his hardihood will no doubt carry him a long way towards victory. His endurance and capacity for taking punishment are remarkable, as he has previously proved. The artificer is now training at the V.R.C., while Lewis is exercising in his training quarters at the Praya East Hotel.

Gunner Arundel on this occasion is matched with Micky Dunn in a fifteen round contest. Dunn is a runner-up in the Army and Navy. Championship, and will no doubt make the Gunidding on the cruiser.

Representatives from Tokyo, Nagoya, Osaka, should be witnessed between Drummer Bouchier of the Buffe and Stoker Biggins for the lightweight championship of the Colony, the belt being recently handed over to the Stoker by Sesman Roberts. Biggins is a clever boxer, and in every fight Bouchier is showing improvement. This contest should therefore be one of the best on the programme,

Kingsland, the R.G.A. slogger, is matched against Seaman Sky Kerrison, a man who has on more than one occasion Mr. Abbey, announcing this figure to be too given a good account of himself. Kerrison's against Davis of the Buffs, Although It is understood that several parties are the soldier steps into the ring here for auction, and as soon as Admiral Winsloo is expect on the night of the fight, Marriott will communicated with it is quite likely that the have to go all the way to win out,

That has been found to to the registration of births and deaths, it has been deemed necessary and proper by a gradual process to extend the law to the New Territories. As stated in the memorandum, it will be effected very gradually. Clause 21 makes an additional amendment which is really necessary. authorises the land officer to examine witnesses upon oath, affirmation or otherwise. As regards clause 58, words have been added so that a plaintiff can sue here if a debt is contracted in the New Territories. Under the old wording if a debt was contracted in the New Territories and the debter removed to Hongkong proceedings would not lie against him. Two additional sections have also been added. Section 72 anthorises that money-changers' licences shall be issued by the District Officer of the northern district and the Captain Superintendent of Police for the southern district, instead Those two districts have already been defined by an Order in Council.

The COLONIA: SECRETARY seconded. STEWART-Your Excellency. When the New Territories became part of the King's Dominions, little more than a decade ago, the civilization of the inhabitants was of the most primitive kind, compared with that of the Chinese inhabitant of Hongkong. No one knows better than your Excellency, and no one can describe half so well, the conditions prevailing in the early days of British rule. Your Excellency took part in the skirmishing the statement of my hon. friend, which attended the establishment of British rule, and you probably owe your life to the fact general outline which he has drawn up on the that cross bows do not carry far and that the promising condition of the New Territories, gingal is not a weapon of precision. Hon. Mr. HEWETT - Your Excellency, I had The Colonial Secretary seconded, and the no idea that the hon. member who represents the Justices of the Peace was going to speak According to the memorandum attached, at this stage of the Bill. I think the remarks geographical, and otherwise, are such that up to the moment, and for some time to come I think. with all due deference to the hon, member, that it will be necessary to have a separate form of regulations controlling the New Territory.

Hon.Mr. STEWART - Hear, hear. I said so.

Hon, Mr. HEWETT-The railway, although it has certainly brought us within reach of the New Territory, is not always reliable (laughter). and I gather that if you administer the whole of of very great importance, which it is proposed the New Territory north of the hills on the same conditions as we administer this very small island and the small peninsula attached, it will work of the department and of the staff. Therefore it appears to me that the course the Government has hitherto followed of giving very great powers to one or two government officials who reside in the New Territories north of the hills and who are controlled by the Governor-in-Council has proved very satisfactory, and should therefore be allowed to continue for have had good effect in other places. With regard some time to come. I think it would be quite premature to adopt an entire change, as I gather from the remarks of the hen, member who spoke last is proposed by him. Because we have a railway is no reason why we should immediately revolutionise the whole government of the New Territories and ask the officers who have hitherto confined their attentions to this island and the peninsula to extend their operations to the scattered populace spread over the New Territories. I believe myself that the New Territories have got all the reasonable protection they can demand; and believe that the system of government, which is certainly economical and which appeals to me personally, is thoroughly efficient and efficacious. I think the remarks made by the hon, member who represents the Justices of the Peace are deserving of consideration. Still, I don't think the time has yet arrived to make a change in the form of government hitherto followed. Government under this sytem gives very great powers to the one or two government officials who control the area north of the hills' Possibly I might have of as heretofore by the Registrar-General, spoken more strongly had I had an idea that the hon, member was going to express the views ! that he did. At present I entirely endorse the pelicy of the Government.

The ATTORNEY-GENERAL-With regard to the remarks made by the hon. member who represents the Justices of the Peace that the Bill entailed changes which are drastic, that is not so. As a matter of fact there are very few changes, and hardly any change involving any question of principle in the whole consolidating Ordinauce. (Hon. Mr. Stewart-Hear, hear.) necessary. The Attorney-General indicates the medifications we are prepared to make. Hon. Mr. STEWART-Yes, but will he put it definitely? He said he saw no objection to it. The Colonial Secretary-The hon. member can vote against the Bill if he wishes. HIS EXCELLENCY—He might not wish to do that. You adopt certain principles in the Bill and give power under these regulations to carry out those principles. There is no precedent that I know of for laying regulations made by the Governor-in-Council on this table. They are published in the Gazette. If there is anything obnoxious you can bring the matter before the Council by resolution. The Attorney-General has explained that there is no new principle introduced in the Bill. (To the Hon. Mr. Stewart) - Do you wish to divide?

Hon. Mr. STEWART-Yes. The motion was then put to the meeting. The only dissentiants were the Hon. Mr Stewart and the Hon. Mr. Osborne.

HIS EXCELLENCY—The Ayes have it. Council then went into committee to consider the Bill clause by clause. Clause 6. sub-section 1. was amended by deleting the words "or any other commodity" and inserting the words "kerosene oil, or any dangerous goods as defined by the Dangerous Goods Ordinance, 1873, or any other commedity which by resolution of the Legislative Council may be included in this sub-section." On clause 7.

Hon. Mr. STEWART-I move. Sir. that the words "published in the Gazette in English and Chinese" be deleted, and the words "laid on the table of the Legislative Council" substituted. HIS EXCELLENCY—I would point out that there dees not seem to be any sense in that, because under section 6 the Legislature gives the Governor-in-Council power to make certain rules. All section 7 says is that the Governorin-Council may make rules for doing the things he is authorised to do under section 6. Hon. Mr. STEWART—Sub-section 1 of section 6 gives him power to levy taxes and to farm the various manufactures. It affects the liberties of the inhabitants of the New Territories, and the difference in my mind between the existing regulations are in force. publishing these regulations in the Gazette and laying them on the table of this Council is a very practical difference. No one reads the Gazette, I am sorry to say; most people are! too busy. But if the regulations are brought | which they may be modified publicly. before members of this Council and their attention is drawn to them, the light of public criticism is directed to them in a more effective way than if they were merely published in the Gazette. This request of the unofficial members

Hon. Mr. HEWETT-The request is not being made now by the unofficial members. I dissent. Hon. Mr. STEWART-It was made in an argument lasting up till eight o'clock in the passing of the Liquors Ordinance, when the same objection was, I think, put forward to regulations being made in secret and the public having no means of criticising them until they were published in the LEGISLATIVE and commerce with the inhabitants of the be included in the sub-section." I have Gasette. That same objection I raise now | Hon. Mr. Osborne-It is levying taxation against these particular rules and regulations being published in the Gazette instead of being haid before this Council.

> The Captain Superintendent of Police -After they are made? Hon. Mr. STEWART-Before they become effective I want them laid on the table of this

> Hon. Mr. HEWETT-With regard to the remarks made by the hou, member who represents the Justices of the Pence, it seems to me that if we adopt this principle here we will be revolutionising the whole principles of Government of the Colony, All Ordinances give to the Governor-in-Council power to make, alter or amend regulations, and these are published in the Gazette. It is clearly the business of anyone interested in the working of this Ordinance to find out whother the regulations have been altered, and to what extent. The hon, member seems to think, although we are largely dealing with ignorant Chinese peasants, that the regulations would have more publicity given to them by being laid on this table than by being published in the Gazette, The only reason why we so specially upon his Excellency Sir Frederick Lugard that the ordinary rule should be broken through in the case of the Liquors Bill was because it was an entirely new departure and was going to possibly make a very serious alteration in the whole life of the Colony, because we are all more or less interested in the sale of liquor. That was why we saked his Excellency pecially break through the rule: cause this departure was absolutely unknown hitherto in the Colony. But for the hon, member who represents the Justices of the Peace to ask for the Governor-in-Council to lay regulations in a matter of this sort before the Council seems to me calculatupset the whole regular working of the Government of the Colony. speak as strongly as 1 do because the hon, member spoke just now in the names of the unofficial members, and he was not authorised to do so. I had no idea that he was going to oppose any clause in this Bill, and I for one dissent from him entirely. Hon. Mr. STEWART-I may remark that > when I referred to the action of the unofficial members it was in connection with the Liquors Ordinance. Hou. Mr. HEWETT-That was a special > question. HIS EXCELLENCY—I can well understand the exception being made in the case of the Liquors Ordinance. That was an Ordinance which introduced a very widespread and farreaching change which affected everybody in the community, and I deresay the community naturally wanted to see those rules and regulations. But what we are going to put in force here is simply dealing with what I may call twopenny-ha penny rules and regulations, and there is no necessity for adopting the course suggested by the hou, member who represents the Justices of the Perce. It simply means more red tape, more delay and more hampering of the ministration. The Legislative Council does not meet so frequently as it has done in the past few months, because we have had a let of details to get through. Small rules with regard to kerosene oil licences and like are continually being altered, and it is now suggested that all these details should be foisted on this Council. I do not really think it is necessary, and I am not > prepared to introduce the innovation. Hon. Mr. OSBORNE-I, Sir, entirely Ordinance.

The COLONIAL SECRETARY—No. it does not. Hon. Hon. Mr. STEWART—There are powers to tax

given to the Governor-in-Council are always within the four corners of the Bill Hop. Mr. OSBORNE-Than add those words to the Bill, Sir, "not incompatible with the principles of this Bill.

The ATTORNEY GENERAL -That is so. Hen Mr STEWART-But where you propose taxation we ask publicity. It is a good old rule and surely not new in British annals. We are considering the taxation of the comparatively helpless people of the New Territory, and it is important that the Legislative Council should consider their interests as well as the interests of these concerned in the liquor trade.

His Excellency-Perhaps ten or fifteen years hence there may be some point for the hon, member's remarks, but I don't think there is to-day. This law has been working for eleven years, and I think working satisfactorily. As I New Territory. The District Officer having said before, more complications introduce more received that direction can summon people to delay and more expense in the long run. Hon. Mr. STEWART—Surely the Government does not contemplate making regulations which they are not prepared to defend reasonably? If not, why not lay them on the table? The COLORIAL SECRETARY-YOU will see them in the Gazette. Hon. Mr. STEWART-I am a busy man and have not got time to read the Gazette.

The Colonial Secretary—We have heard that story before. Hon. Mr. HEWETT-The hon. member does not appreciate the point I make, that if we adopt this we will be revolutionising the government of the Colony. Hon. Mr. STEWART-It is only in connection with taxation— Hon. Mr. HEWETT-I still maintain with all towards the future. Conditions will change and you will have to modify existing regulations as time goes on. I wish to devise machinery by HIS EXCELLANCY—I must say that I did not know the Gazette was so little patronised. It is the usual form of making things known. The COLONIAL SECRETARY—Section 6 does impose taxation—only to regulate it. Hon. Mr. STEWART-He farms out, he sells the right to deal or manufacture in certain things. Does that not impose taxation on the people who buy it?

The COLONIAL SECRETARY-I don't think so. Not in the sense of taxation. Hon. Mr. Stewark-But in a very practical amendment to propose I will put the clause. Hon. Mr. STEWART-I move that the words published in the Gazotte in English and Chinese be deleted and for them be substituted "be laid on the table of the Legislative Council." Hon. Mr. HEWETT-What does "laid on the table" mean? Does it mean merely laid or

The ATTORNEY-GENERAL-It simply gives the Legislative Council a sort of tacit cognisance of what is going on.

The amendment on being put to the meeting was lost, only the Hon. Mr. Osborne and the Hon. Mr. Stewart supporting it, and the clause then stood part of the Bill. On clause 9.

Hon. Mr. OSBORNE -Is there any provision for the payment of expenses by the District Officer ! Can a man be deprived of his day's labour by going to answer the questions of a District Officer? The COLONIAL SECRETARY-You might as well say a magistrate should pay him. Such a thing cannot be helped, Hon. Mr. OSBORNE-That is in original

The Colonial Secretary-It happens every day. The ATTORNEY-GENERAL—There is general ower under the Magistrates' Ordinance to award ordinary expenses. Hon. Mr. OSBORNE-It is rather hard to take man from his work and drag him to the District Officer's court to answer questions. Hon. Mr. HEWETT-It happens in England. Hon. Mr. OSBORNE-Only in criminal cases Hon. Mr. HEWETT-No, in civil cases as well HIS EXCELLENCY—I recollect where men were brought from Shataukok. They got travelling expenses and out-of-pocket expenses, but they did not get expenses for their time. I don't think that is reasonable.

The COLONIAL SECRETARY-A juryman does not get his day's value. Hon. Mr. Osborns-He does in a civil case.

His Excellency -Do you wish to move an amendment or not? Hon. Mr. OsB RNE-Yes. I move an amond ment to the effect that the District Officers will award compensation-HIS EXCELLENCY—I don't think you ought to introduce that principle. You might introduce payment of travelling expenses.

Hon. Mr. OSBORNE-Well, "that the District Officer shall award out of pocket expenses to Hon. Mr. HEWETT- Has not the District Officer that power under the Magistrates!

The ATTORNEY-GENERAL-I think he has. Hon. Mr. OSEGUNE-I want to make him do The COLONIAL SECRETARY-You cannot make him do it in every case. Hon. Mr. OSBORNE-Yes you can if you put it in the Ordinance.

The COL NIAL SECRETARY-I would rather take the clause out than that. HIS EXCELLENCY-You make a great mistake in pampering the people over there. man is told to come and answer questions as to how a certain tree was cut down by his neighbour. He is contumacious and won't come. The people are not lambs in the Territory. Far from it.

Hon. Mr. OSBORNE-If the matter were left in the hands of the District Officer you could rely on his discretion, but it is not. It is left to his subordinates.

HIS EXCELLENCY—No man can be sent for without the authority of the District Officer, In India District Officers bave ten times the power given under this Ordinance. People here appear to get frightened of giving a District Officer any power at all.

Hon. Mr. OSBORNE-A District Officer India is generally a man of very vast experience. -His Excellency-He is no better than the men here. They are drawn from exactly the same class.

Hon. Mr. OSBORNE-I don't say he is any better, but he is of vast experience and an older Hon. Mr. HEWETT-No, not older, very often

The ATTORNEY-GENERAL -I think the question is covered by the Magistrates' Ordinance. Sections 10 and 11 of the Bill both bring in the provisions of the Magistrates' Ordinance of 1890. Hon. Mr. OSBOENE - That seems to be sufficient. The clause was then passed.

On clause 10 (I):

Hon. Mr. STEWART-Will the powers under this section be used in the event of the Crown desiring to get information to work up one of its own cases? HIS EXCELLENCY—I have never known it to sider the Bill clause by clause.

be used for that purpose, that purpose P Hon. Mr. HEWETT-I take it it would be it be read a third time. misused if it were. The COLONIAL SECRETARY - A District

Officer is not a detective. His EXCELLENCY-It is only for the purposes of an inquiry directed by Government. The Governor first directs the District Officer to inquire into and report on any matter relating to the come before him. He cannot move on his own initiative. Hon. Mr. STEWART-Your suggestion that the Government would not dream of deing such a thing? HIS EXCELLENCY—The Government does not use that power as a rule. The power has hitherto been used, as it was meant to be used, for inquiries into fights, disturbances, and things of that sort. Hon. Mr. STEWART-Solong as it is understood that it is to be used in that way The clause was passed.

Hon. Mr. OSBORNE-What is the difference between a police officer and a constable? The clause says a police officer or a constable. HIS EXCELLENCY—A police officer will b above the rank of a constable.

police officer, isn't he? The COLONIAL SECRETARY - Not necessarily a constable is a private. Clause 21 (2).

Hon. Mr. STEWART-A constable is also

Hon. Mr. STEWART-This sub-section seems to give extraordinary powers to the Land Officer Who is to decide that the evidence is false? Hon. Mr. OSBORNE-He is prosecutor and judge in one.

Hon. Mr. STEWARY-What sort of proof do you want that the evidence is false, and how are you going to get it? The ATTORNEY-GENERAL-The man has t not give the Governor-in-Council power to be tried before a magistrate.

His Excellency—The evidence will disclose it. A judge in Court can send a man to gaol for perjury, and perjury discloses itself. Hon. Mr. STEWART-It is a most dangerous power for any judge to have.

The COLONIAL SECRETARY-They have in Hongkong already. The ATTORNEY-GENERAL - This is based on section 12 of Ordinance 4 of 1900.

Hon, Mr. OSBORNE-That is ten years ago. The ATTORNEY-GENERAL-If my hon. friend His Excellency-Unless you have any saw as much of perjury at Court as I do he would be very glad to take some steps. HIS EXCELLENCY—I think it is very necessary to leave it in

The clause with slight amendment was adopted. Clause 23.

Hon. Mr. STEWART-I move that we substitute $1,000 for $2,000. It seems to me that $2,000 is a very large sum for people over there. Hon, Mr. Hewerr-Section 20 gives the Land Officer power to deal with property up to $5,000. HIS EXCELLENCY—That sum of $2,000 was inserted at the time the Land Court Ordinance was passed. I think it was proposed at the time to make it $5,000, and it was reduced in this Council to $2,000. I think that is quite low enough.

Hon. Mr. STEWART It is a very large sum for a villager in the New Territory. If he feels he has been unjustly treated in the matter I do not see why he should not have the right to appeal to somebody. The COLONIAL SECRETARY-They can always appeal to the Supreme Court. Hon, Mr. STEWART-I don't understand that. The clause says the judgment of the Land Officer shall be conclusive for all purposes. The COLONIAL SECRETARY-If a judge of the Supreme Court shall give special leave to appeal hocan always appeal to the Supreme Court.

The clause was adopted. Clause 54. Hon. Mr. OSBORNE-I beg to move, Sir, in this clause, as in the other, that such regulations shal be laid upon the table of this Council. HIS EXCELLENCY-These are all regulations relating to land. I should think very few members of this Council would understand them.

Hon, Mr. STEWART-I support the amendment. His Excellency-Do you wish to divide

Hon. Mr. STEWART-Yes. The amendment was lost, the Hon. Mr. Osborne and the Hon. Mr. Stewart being the only supporters. The clause was adopted.

The ATTORNEY-GENERAL asked that part 3 of the Bill be deferred till next meeting, and moved that Council resums. Council then resumed. LIQUORS LICENCES AMENDMENT ORDINANCE

The ATTORNEY-GENERAL moved the second reading of the Bill entitled, "An Ordinance to amend the Liquor Licences Amendment Ordinance. 1909." In doing so he said-It was found that these two amendments were necessary in order to fix definite hours for the sale, of liquors on liceused premises. There was some conflict between the conditions imposed in the Ordinance of 1898 and the intentions of the Government with regard to this.

The COLONIAL SECRETARY seconded, and the motion was agreed to. Council then went into committee to consider the bill clause by clause.

On clause 2. Hon. Mr. OSBOBNE-Will notice be given to the different publicans other than through the Gazette? HIS EXCELLENCY—This will come into force when the new licences are issued. A clause is to be added at the end stating that it will come into force on December 1st. Then it will be a condition of their licences.

Hon. Mr. OSBORNE-We don't want a prosecution to be the first intimation. The COLONIAL SECRETARY—That would be impossible. It can only come into force after the new licenses are issued

Hon. Mr. OSBORNE-Yes, but the hours will be different to what they have been. The COLONIAL SECRETARY-They will be stated in the new licence. The ATTORNEY-GENERAL moved that the following new clause be added: "This Ordinance shall come into operation on December 1st. 1910." The GOLONIAL SECRETARY seconded, and the motion was agreed to.

On Council resuming, The ATTORNEY-GENERAL moved the third reading of the Bill. The COLONIAL SECRETARY seconded, and the Bill was read a third time and passed. PROMISSORY OATHS ORDINANCE AMENDENT. The ATTORNEY-GENERAL moved the second reading of the Bill entitled. "An Ordinance to amend the Promissory Oaths Ordinance 1869." In doing so he said-The object of this Bill. Sir, is to amend the schedule so as to provide that Justices of the Peace in future may be sworn by one of the Police Magistrates instead of in the presence of the Governor. I may say that the system prevailing at Home is that a Justice of the Peace can be sworn before any other two Justices. The COLONIAL SECRETARY seconded and the motion was agreed to.

Council then went into committee to con-On resuming, the ATTORNEY GENERAL Hon. Mr. STEWART-Could it be used for reported that the Bill had passed through committee without amendment and moved that

> The COLONIAL SECRETARY seconded, and the Bill was road a third time and passed. His Excellency-Council adjourns until this day week.

THE ACCIDENT TO THE H.-A. L. S. " ARMENIA."

The R.M.S. Monteagle arrived at Woosung at 5 p.m. on Saturday last with the H.-A. L. S. Armenia in tow. As briefly reported by wireless telegraphy, the Monteagle picked up the Armenia on Friday. The Armenia left Shanghai the previous Wednesday, bound for Moji. When in the vicinity of Socotra Rock, about midway between Shanghai and Nagasaki, on Thursday, she broke her tail shaft. Very shortly after the accident a Japanese steamer hove in sight, and offered to tow her either to Moji or Kobe, but refused to bring her to Nagasaki or Shanghai. The day after the accident-on Friday—the Monteagle fell in with the disabled vessel, and offered to tow her to Shanghai. There was a heavy sea running at the time. and the boat lowered by the Monteagle was damaged. Nevertheless it made its way across to the Armenia, and brought back a three-inch. wire hawser to the Monteagle. The sea was too rough to venture to tow the Armenia with this hawser, and accordingly it was used to carry a chain cable back to the German ship. Thirty fathoms of this cable were paid out, and then the Monteagle took the Armenia in tow and succeeded in bringing her safely to Woosung. Considering the weather the Monteagle's fest was an extremely smart piece of seamanship. It was only two hours from the time she lowered her boat until she began to tow the Armenia. and she arrived at Woosung only five hours late. Early on Sunday morning the Alexandra and Vulcan towed the Armenia up to the Cosmopolitan Dock.

The Armenia, having unloaded most of her cargo in Shanghai, was very light at the time of the accident, drawing only 19 feet. Apparently the break in the shaft was close to the boss, as the propeller was seen to be canted up, and the tail of the sheft was depressed inside.

The use of a chain cable instead of a hawser is explained by the fact that the chains own weight will keep it in the water, wherean a wire hawser would be subjected to such jerks and strains in a heavy sea that it would almost certainly part .- N. O. Daily News.

A CAUSE CELEBRE IN THE STRAITS.

THE TIN CASE

In the number of hearings, the action now efore the Supreme Court, and popularly known occupied in taking evidence on commission in on the case for seventeen days. In the course of the proceedings some eighty documents, many of them bulky, have been referred to: the evidence on commission alone embraces 1,100 questions and answers. The Counsel engaged for the plaintiffs are the Hon. A. R. Adams, the Hon. Hugh Fort of Singapore and Mr. W.H. Thorne. Representing the defendants are Messrs. Maxwell R. Thornton, W. E. Cleaver and W. R. Armstrong. The case consists of a series of actions involving claims for over $111,000 by Messrs. A. Strauss & Co. merchants, 16. Road Lane, London, and Mesars. Behr & Co., merchants, Penang. They are suing severally or jointly Messrs. Chin Ho & Sons and other Chinese merchants and dealers for losses incurred upon the consistadeducting charges for interest, expenses, commission. &c. In each instance the defendants probably leave patient renders who waded through them no wiser in the end than at the 0.75 temporary, to make an attempt, without Mr. S. Behr, Mr. Cawson, of Forester & unfairness to either side, to indicate briefly the Cawson, metal brokers, Mr. W. Polkingham, salient features of the case. About the end of of the firm of James & Shakespeare, metal 0,50 October, 1907, it would appear from what the brokers, and Mr. B. F. The suggestion was made by cable, and, as a regult, on the 5th November, 1907, agreements were entered into under which the Chinase were either to consign to London or transfer in London quantities amounting to 2,000 tons of tin. They furthermore gave Messes, Strauss authority to buy on a joint account with them 2,000 more tons of tin-all being for the purposes of a pool. The idea of the combination was, that the more sanguine thought the effect It was arranged that, with respect to the 2,000 tons of tin belonging to the Chinese and shipped to London to form part of the pool, Mesers. Bohr & Co. were to give them advances. The agreements between the parties were to cover a period ending 30th January, 1908, and Under the authority given to Mesars, Strauss & Co. to buy, they bought 1,650 tons. November, 1908, the tin was re-sold and Mosars. Belir & Co, and Mesars Strauss & Co. are suing the Chinese for the losses incurred on the tranplaintiffs case against the defendants.

THE GREAT NORTHEBN RAILWAY CO.

The Great Northern Railway Company is spending nearly two millions of dollars on the "hill," as the main line is known from Scenic to Cascade Tunnel, in an effort to make the road impregnable against snowslides during the winter months. This vast sum of money is being expended for the construction of snow sheds, timber and concrete, for rebuilding two miles of the main line at and near Berne, East of the East portal of the big bore; for new buildings at Wellington and Cascade Tunnel: for a water supply system between Wellington and Scenic ; for additional tracks at Wellington, and for other work incidental to a model winter rendezvous for a large body of men whose duty it shall be to fight snow and keep the main line open at all times that the Company may serve te patrons as it desires.

In the latter part of last April, several weeks after the destructive snows'ide at Wellington, in which a number of lives were lost and much valuable property destroyed, James J. Hill. chairman of the board of directors: L. W. Hill. President, L. C. Gilman, assistant to the president; Chief Engineer Hogeland, and other officials, visited Wellington and vicinity. and after investigating conditions, the veteran head of the system then and there decided to spare no money in making the "hill" as safe as possible during the winter months. In extending the road to the Coast, Mr. Hill surmounted all sorts of obstacles and when told by his engineers that the change and betterments would cost a vast amount of money, he told them to go shead, and do the "job as it should be done." The fulfillment of this order will be accomplished by the first of November, and possibly before, and by the time the Snow King spreads his mantle over the mountains the Great Northern will be in a position to operate trains and make time over the Cascades as it never has before. Should anything happen to cause a tie-up a Wellington, passengers can rest assured that there will not be a repetition of last winter's disaster, as along the entire stretch swept-by the slide will be a reinforced concrete anow shed, 3,300 feet long, the only one of its kind in the world. To protect its patrons and its property the Great Northern is spending $500,000
